

JD SYMPOSIUM

Science & Fun

Passion moves the world.

JUNE 19th-20th, 2015

Hotel Royal Continental, via Partenope 38
Naples, Italy

Register now for the JDSymposium 2015 in Naples. With topics that include principles of implant design, immediate implant placement, immediate loading, esthetics, full arch solutions, bone atrophy management, the 2015 Symposium will address a wide range of implant dentistry challenges. This is your opportunity to update your knowledge about the very latest techniques in implant and restorative dentistry.

JDentalCare is proud to hold this program in Naples, a wonderful city full of history and beauties. After a full day of coursework you will be free to allow time for you to relax with colleagues, explore the city with its folklore and unforgettable atmosphere and lose yourself between the sea and the symbols of the city.

Passion is everywhere in Naples, in the people, in the streets, in the clubs, in the theaters. If you are passionate about implant dentistry and about life, from wherever you are, we look forward to see you there, because... "Passion moves the world".

See you at JD Symposium 2015!

VENUE

Naples is situated in central position, between the Vesuvius and the volcanic area of Campi Flegrei in a scenario considered "among the most celebrated and beautiful in the world." Its vast artistic and architectural heritage (museums, castles, churches, squares, alleys and archaeological remains) allowed its historic center to join the list of sites that UNESCO declared World Heritage site. Unlike cities in which art is stored in museums and daily life happens on the streets, Naples's distinctive mark is its folklore: people living and working among the artistic beauties of the city. So welcome to Naples! We wish you have a good stay in this wonderful place.

HOTEL ROYAL CONTINENTAL ☆☆☆☆☆
